

TASK 1

- ⇒ To check data usage on windows 10 open the setting app then click on network & internet and further click on data usage and click the usage details links to view network data usage. Here it will show all the usage for all the applications installed on my computer.

TASK 2

- ⇒ My System was updated last month (2020-09-17)
- ⇒ There are 35 updates available.
- ⇒ Yes, it is possible to receive updates from several sources.

TASK 3: Yes, it is possible to share my wifi connections with friends.

Yes, my router have a unique password.

TASK 4: Yes, I have backup of my system files in D: drive.

It is done automatically, password is not required.

TASK 5: There are no hidden extensions on my computer

Potentially dangerous Extensions
These file extensions are very dangerous because they can contain malicious program or codes or can execute arbitrary commands and cause damage to data and systems or can gain unauthorised access.

TASK 6 : My antivirus has top 5 features

- Auto-clean
- Automatic update
- protection for multiple apps
- fight against all kind of malware
- Real time scanning

Windows 10 includes Windows security which scans for malware, viruses and security threat and real time protection and updates are downloaded automatically and keep my device safe and protect it from threats.

TASK 7 :

- ⇒ Yes, my browser block pop-up windows.
- ⇒ No, there are no potentially harmful extensions.

TASK 7:

- ⇒ Yes, I have most recent version of the browser.
- ⇒ Monthly, I have my browsing history and cache deleted.
- ⇒ To manage Cookies, open the browser find menu and select setting & navigate to site setting and select cookies. From this menu we can manage cookie acceptance on or off, whether or not to allow third party cookies & manage a list of websites excluded from the cookie policy.
- ⇒ Yes, browsers have the ability to save passwords but this feature is not secure.
- ⇒ Yes, sometimes I use autofill for the web forms.
- ⇒ Yes, websites can get access to our camera or microphone, to our location.
- ⇒ Yes, it is allowed to download content from website.
- ⇒ Yes, there are ~~are~~ plug-ins available.